

18/07/10 Sunday Jazz : Leeds Youth Jazz Rock Orchestra Sunday, 1-4pm, £5/£4 conc, kids free.

The LYJRO Big Band is one Seven Jazz's favourite bands. Their spectrum of jazz related styles ranging from swing to 'hip hop' and funk. Under the guidance of charismatic director Brendan Duffy LYJRO has organised workshops featuring eminent jazz musicians including Scott Stroman and Dave O'Higgins and projects involving several ensembles - such as their 'Global Warning' project in 2005.

Every Sunday Sunday Quiz Sunday, 8pm, free.

Start the new year by testing your general knowledge in a relaxed atmosphere; a great way to end the weekend with friends. Special meal deal only on quiz night. Prizes. With resident quizmaster, Roger Hunter

NOTE : NO SCREEN SEVEN FILM ON MONDAY 19 JULY

20, 21, & 22/07/10 C54 Theatre Company : Served Tuesday-Thursday 7.30pm £9 /£7 conc.

Fresh from a sell out run in London C54 Theatre Company invites you to be 'SERVED' Theatre Four men from four very different backgrounds enter this cosy coffee shop in Chapel Allerton to reveal their lives, secrets and favourite drinks to the general public. How would you spend your lottery winnings? How can one man cope with the loss of his wife? But first things first how would you like your coffee?

23/07/10 52 Skidoo : Fats Waller Revival Friday, 8pm, £10

52 Skidoo are a three piece Harlem swing band that has turned back the clock to play the dazzling repertoire of Fats Waller in the style for which it was written. They bring back to life the forgotten era of prohibition, speakeasy's, Vaudeville, tin pan alley, rent parties, stride piano and hot jazz.

25/07/10 Ten String Thing Sunday, 8pm, £5

Ten String Thing is an eclectic mix of jazz, blues rock and funk and consist of Lawrence on guitar and Maya on violin and vocals. They came together through a mutual wish to play and sing innovative music without the boundaries of being one thing or another. With influences such as Ella Fitzgerald, and Stevie Wonder the music can't help but be joyful and 'sunnyside up'.

26/07/10 The Escapist Monday, 8pm, £5 /£3.50 conc.

Dir. Rupert Wyatt, UK/Ireland, 2008, 102 mins, 15

The familiar, classic verities of the prison break movie are loyally observed in The Escapist, but with a catch. When aging prisoner Frank learns that his estranged daughter is terminally ill, he and a loose group of misfit concoct a daring escape plan. Director Wyatt reinvigorates the prison-break drama here, by ingeniously spicing together the planning, and the escape itself.

28/07/10 Kill For A Seat Comedy Wednesday, 8pm, £10/£8 conc.

Silky introduces another knock-out line up. Buy tickets early to avoid depression on line via www.ticketweb.co.uk or in person from Seven.

31/07/10 All New Whistle Test Saturday, 8.30pm, £5 on the door

Poised and charismatic, Chloe Charles breaks black female vocalist stereotypes right away as she arrives on stage with her classical guitar, accompanied by violin, double bass, or other unexpected twists and turns of her musical imagination. Also with blues singer and acoustic guitarist, Aly Tadros. Plus local support.

02/08/10 XXY Monday, 8pm, £5 /£3.50 conc.

Dir. Lucia Puenzo, Argentina/France/Spain, 2007, 90 mins. Subtitles

A moving teen drama, XXY has been gathering festival plaudits in the run-up to this UK release. Alex isn't like other girls. Her parents keep her hidden away at a coastal town in amongst the dunes of the shoreline, buying time before they must decide on a life-threatening operation.

04/08/10 Wicked Words : Char March Wednesday, 8pm, £5 /£3.50 conc /£3 open micers

A lively monthly event of words and poetry; this month's headline poet, Char March. Char is a multi award-winning poet, playwright and fiction-writer; her performances are vibrant and moving. Plus Open Mic. Book your place early for an open mic slot to avoid disappointment - b_mcpartlan@yahoo.co.uk

09/08/10 The Wedding Monday, 8pm, £5 /£3.50 conc.

Dir. Wojciech Smarzowski, 2007, Poland, 105 mins, subtitles

If no-one gets thrashed, a wedding's a failure," comments the priest nonchalantly during The Wedding, a Polish comedy drama set during a particularly eventful reception. As the film unfolds, bride Kasia is one of the film's few positive figures: everyone else seems to be preoccupied with either money or sex, and they're looking for both in the wrong places.

11/08/10 All New Whistle Test Wednesday, 8.30pm, £3 on the door

The best in Leeds-based emerging artists. This session, Fighting Man (who return triumphantly with new songs after they played their first ever gig at Seven) and rock 'n roll band, Victors, soon to begin work on their long-awaited debut album.

12/08/10 Acoustic Open Mic Night Thursday, doors 8pm, free

Acoustic open mic night organised by Sebastian John. When you arrive just put your name on the list; 15mins/3songs. A very special regular event.

14/08/10 Mik Artistik Saturday, 8.30pm £8 /£6 conc

We are delighted to welcome back to Seven the surreal punk, funk, catholic, eclectic comedy phenomenon that is Mik Artistik. Part comedian, singer, painter and performance artist, Mik first trod the boards back in 1994 and formed his band, Mik Artistik's Ego Trip, some 10 years later. Marvel at Mik's poetic leaps. He is 'unpredictable, unnerving and with a tendency to incorporate his audience. Impossible to ignore.

16/08/10 Blue Eyelids Monday, 8pm, £5 /£3.50 conc.

Dir. Ernesto Contreras, Mexico, 2008, 98 mins, subtitles

Gem of a film from Mexico shows that boy meets girl can always be made to live again. Marina works at a garment factory making uniforms and wins a prize in an office competition: a luxury beach holiday for two. But she has no one to go with, and it at this moment that she is accosted in a cafe by Victor, who claims to be an old school friend.

21/08/10 Burlesque Night : The Golden Garter Saturday, 7pm doors, £8 adv /£10 on the door.

A thigh slapping, tassel twirling, gun slinging, whisky drinking, wild west extravaganza! Featuring rip-roaring musical numbers from The Lovesick Cowboys and Wild West Burlesque from Adelina Le Shay, Lexi Sexx, Mimi Demure and Nelly Plum.

23/08/10 Mon Petit Doigt M'a Dit (A Little Bird Told Me) Monday, 8pm, £5 /£3.50 conc.

Dir. Pascal Thomas, 2005, France, 105 mins. Subtitles.

Prudence Beresford and Belisarius are investigating mysterious deaths in a retirement home where their aunt is living; during this visit, Prudence meets an old lady who speaks of a child in the walled fireplace. A Little Bird Told Me is a thriller adapted from the novel by Agatha Christie.

24/08/10 Tuesday all day Seven closed for maintenance.*25/08/10 Kill For A Seat Comedy Wednesday, 8pm, £10/£8 conc.

Silky introduces another knock-out line up. Buy tickets early to avoid depression on line via www.ticketweb.co.uk or in person from Seven.

30/08/10 Short Film Festival Monday, 7pm, £5/£3conc

A night of short films with a Chapel Allerton connection; a cornucopia of film-making talent will be screened. Not to be missed. The Chapel Allerton Short Film Festival operates on a not for profit basis under the umbrella of the Chapel Allerton Arts Festival. Last year's sold out event was a great success with some very strong submissions. Many of the film-makers attended on the night to introduce their films and take questions in the bar afterwards. A must for local film makers or anyone with an interest in film-making.

31/08/10 Welcome to the Land of Nod Tuesday, 8pm, £7

Welcome to...The Land of Nod. Population: 4. Twinned with Goole. Notable citizens: theatrical legend Sir Reginald Crimp; Therapy Corner host Dave Smethwick and Chi-Chi the reluctant panda. Land of Nod is a Chapel Allerton based comedy sketch show aiming to storm the impregnable barricades of light entertainment

01/09/10 Wicked Words Wednesday, 8pm, £5 /£3.50 conc /£3 open micers

A lively monthly event of words and poetry; this month's headline poet tbc. Plus Open Mic. Book your place early for an open mic slot to avoid disappointment - b_mcpartlan@yahoo.co.uk

02/09/10 Festival Cabaret : The Little Big Show Thursday, 8pm £5

This year Chapel Allerton Arts Festival has its very own cabaret! Expect comedy, music, whimsy and a whole lot more from the 'Little Big Show'. And you can drink while you watch. What more could you require?

03/09/10 Spud Theatre : Trainspotting Friday, 8pm, £7 /£5 conc

A welcome return for Spud Theatre, presenting Harry Gibson's adaptation of the cult novel 'Trainspotting' by Scottish author Irvine Welsh. The play follows the ups and downs experienced by a group of young heroin addicts from Edinburgh. So, if you would like to reacquaint yourself with Renton, Begbie, Spud, Sick Boy, Tommy, Johnny Swan and Alison, come and watch what promises to an exciting and blackly comic production.

04/09/10 Ad Hoc Baroque : "Love, Death and the Nightingale" Saturday, 7.30pm; tickets tbc

An exploration of the cosmopolitan world of 17th and 18th century music making. Wide ranging programme will take the audience from the introspection of the solo lute song to the flamboyance of the baroque sonatas and cantatas with works by Handel, Vivaldi, Purcell and Boismortier Scarlatti, Telemann, Legrenzi and others.

05/09/10 Festival Closing Party : Soul Train Sunday, 8pm free

A rousing end to Chapel Allerton Arts Festival; the Sixties revisited with soul, reggae, ska, funk, mod, 60s R&B.