12th June West

Dir: Christian Schwochow, 2013. Subtitles

East Germany. Summer, late 70's. Three years after her boyfriend Wassilij's apparent death, Nelly Senff decides to escape from behind the Berlin wall with her son Alexej, leaving her traumatic memories and past behind. Pretending to marry a West German, she crosses the border to start a new life in the West. But soon her past starts to haunt her as the Allied Secret Service begin to question Wassilij's mysterious disappearance. 1h 37 min, Stars: Cris Lankenau, Raúl Castillo, Robyn Rikoon.

19th June Cold Weather

Dir: Aaron Katz, 2010

After abandoning a promising academic career in forensic science, aimless Doug returns to Portland to live with his more responsible big sister Gail. He quickly lands a dead-end job in an ice factory, but his latent passion for detective work is stoked when his ex-girlfriend goes missing. Armed with a handful of arcane clues, Doug enlists Gail and co-worker Carlos in a ramshackle investigation that draws the slacker sleuths into Portland's not-quite-seedy underground. 1hr 37 mins. Stars: Cris Lankenau, Raúl Castillo, Robyn Rikoon.

26th June 20 Feet From Stardom

Dir: Morgan Neville, 2013

Backup singers live in a world that lies just beyond the spotlight. Their voices bring harmony to the biggest bands in popular music, but we've had no idea who these singers are or what lives they lead, until now. Triumphant and heartbreaking in equal measure, the film is both a tribute to the unsung voices who brought shape and style to popular music and a reflection on the conflicts, sacrifices and rewards of a career spent harmonizing with others. 1hr 27 mins. Stars: Darlene Love, Merry Clayton, Lisa Fischer.
